Season of Sharing: Small Acts for a Big Impact

Mayor Cherie Wood

Building a thriving community takes, well, a whole lot of people. We are so fortunate that South Salt Lake is full of great people who serve and give back in countless ways. In my experience, the power of a community is exponentially greater with each person who brings something positive and different to the table. So in the spirit of the Holidays, I want to share some of my favorite ways to contribute. Many take just a small financial or time commitment but have a big payback.

- Volunteer. The gift of time is one of the most valuable things you can share. Help us plan out our new community garden at Fitts Park, or teach digital literacy skills at The Community Opportunity Center (The Co-Op). Love to celebrate? Then volunteer for Mural Fest or the July 4th Parade. Have a unique skill set you would like to share? Reach out to us at connect@sslc.gov.
- Host a donation drive. Food, school, hygiene, and household supplies can be donated to the Promise Community Resource Pantry, or to one of South Salt Lake's several nonprofit partners (see suggestions on p. 4 and 7).
- Clear a storm drain. Storm drains need to be clear of ice, leaves and debris to prevent flooding and keep waterways clean.
- Plant native. Local wildlife needs our support. Monarch butterflies are at risk of extinction, the Milkweed plant is the only plant they eat and lay their eggs on. Hungry butterflies need nectar plants, which also keep the birds and bees well-fed all summer long. Plant some diversity and avoid using toxic herbicides on your lawn and garden, and you will see the payoff!
- Adopt a hydrant. It is simple to help your local firefighter. While shoveling walks this winter, be sure to clear the snow away from a hydrant on your street.
- Help out furry friends. Volunteer or donate food and supplies to our Animal Shelter. Contact, jenica.laws@sslc.gov. See page 6 to learn about our Angel Paw Tree.
- Show a neighbor you care. Especially those who are elderly, have a chronic illness, or those with special needs. Check-in on them, offering to run an errand, or help clear their leaves and snow.

- Attend City meetings. Building strong neighborhoods start with strong civic involvement. Wherever your interest lies, attend City Council meetings or participate in meetings like Neighborhood Watch. Many are also held or broadcast online. The current City calendar of events can be found at sslc.gov.

This year, I saw many of you in action, in service, and finding ways to raise up our community. Thanks to those who see a need, do what they can, pitch in, donate, spread the good word, and make South Salt Lake a wonderful place to live. Wishing you a safe and happy holiday season!

—Cherie

Over 40 residents gathered to show their support for gaining a partnership with Wasatch Community Gardens in order to bring a new community garden to Fitts Park in 2022.

At the new Community Opportunity Center (The Co-Op), Lucas Horns, sits down to help a resident navigate on a computer. We need more volunteers like you that can assist others to gain digital skills!

What's Neighborhood Night? We organized an evening at Riverfront to allow residents to socialize and ask questions about our city departments, services and programs, like Promise!

CITY COUNCIL CORNER

By Ray deWolfe, At-Large

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused a rift in the thinking of the role of personal freedom as it relates to societal freedom. It is common knowledge you are not free to run your car into somebody else's. There are consequences. Freedom often has limits, especially when it affects the freedom of another. The debate on masks, vaccinations, mandates, lockdowns, etc. are often viewed as a tug-of-war battle between my freedom and your freedom. I'd argue the real tug-of-war is between freedom and responsibility. To speak more about the role of responsibility, I'd like to quote a Holocaust survivor and renowned psychiatrist, Victor Frankl. He wrote a best-selling book detailing his experience called "Man's Search for Meaning." Here's a passage from the book:

"Freedom, however, is not the last word. Freedom is only part of the story and half the truth. Freedom is but the negative aspect of the whole phenomenon whose positive aspect is responsibility. In fact, freedom is in danger of degenerating into mere arbitrariness unless it is lived in terms of responsibility. That is why I recommend that the Statue of Liberty on the East Coast be supplemented by a Statue of Responsibility on the West Coast."

A phrase used by founding father Patrick Henry, "Give me Liberty or Give me Death" should not be used as a Get Out of Jail Free card to disregard society's obligation to responsibility. Your liberty, more frequently than not, does not start and stop with only yourself in mind. I'll use a metaphor borrowed from Sir Isaac Newton – For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction. People often neglect this fact, which realizes that what you do has an impact on others. We must pause to think if our actions, which we sometimes claim are within our personal liberties, are acting responsibly. A responsibility to maintain an overall free society.

Our freedoms are not at risk when we are held responsible. In fact, I believe Viktor Frankl argues quite the opposite. Our freedoms are most at risk when we lose sight of our responsibility. If we want to continue to be a great country, then Responsibility must accompany Freedom. We must show the world we can handle the weight – nay, the societal burden of Freedom by acting Responsible enough to keep it.

When it Snows: Winter rules to abide by Winter is here, and that snow is on the way! Public Works is hard at work keeping the streets clear, here are a few things you can do to help out.

Parked vehicles impact snowplow operators. Avoid parking on any city street between the hours of 2:00 a.m. and 6:00 a.m. Remember that it is illegal to park on a street or in an alley for more than 72 hours consecutively, and to leave unlicensed/unregistered vehicles, or detached trailers on the street.

Public Safety

Keep Your Property & All of Us Safe this Holiday Season

Message from SSLPD Chief Jack Carruth

The holiday season is here and many in our community are helping by serving others. Please consider donating, to local nonprofits and charitable organizations that are in need of extra provisions such as donated food, clothing, financial support and basic care items. This year, the South Salt Lake Police along with the generous support from the South Salt Lake Honorary Colonels helped provide complete Thanksgiving meals to over 60 families in our community. As always, it was a great and memorable experience.

I'd like to share some crime prevention tips to better ensure that your possessions remain in your possession. Criminals can be sneaky but most often take action due to access and opportunity. Here are a few ways you can deter theft during the holidays.

- While shopping, do not carry multiple bags, even if you have to take multiple trips to your vehicle. Place packages and items in the trunk and properly secure them.
- If you carry a purse, do not leave it in a shopping cart unattended. It takes only a few seconds for someone to take your valuables and personal information.
- If you order online, use an address where someone will be home to retrieve the package(s), or a work address. The longer a package remains on the porch visible the more likely it will be stolen.
- Do not share vacation and travel plans on social media. Secure your home and garage while traveling. Share your activities once you've returned home.
- Do not drink or drive. Have a designated driver or utilize a cab or ride-share option.

Help keep your property and us all safe this holiday season.

If in Doubt, COVID-19 Testing is a Good Idea

If you have any symptoms of COVID-19, you should get tested as quickly as possible. Finding positive cases and beginning isolation early can prevent you from exposing others. Symptoms of COVID-19 may look like other common illnesses, like strep throat, colds, flu, or allergies.

To find the most current schedule for free rapid mobile COVID-19 testing clinics, visit coronavirus.utah.gov.

Our Main Goal: No Holiday Fires!

Message from SSLFD Chief Terry Addison

The South Salt Lake Fire Department would like to remind you about fire safety. The celebration of the season brings increased usage of electric lights, candles, space heaters, fireplaces and Christmas trees. Our main goal is to eliminate all emergencies due to Holiday fires.

HOLIDAY LIGHTS

- Inspect lights each year for frayed wires, gaps in insulation, broken or cracked sockets.
- Do not overload electrical outlets.
- Do not leave holiday lights on unattended.
- If you use holiday lights outside, make sure they are rated for outdoor use.

CHRISTMAS TREES

- The key to a safe Christmas tree starts at the sales lot. Try the "Tap Test", lift the tree up, and tap it on the ground. If any needles fall off, this tree is already too dry. Look for another tree.
- Keep your tree watered. Without daily watering, your Christmas tree could become highly flammable.
- Never use outside lights on your Christmas tree. These lights can produce enough heat to dry out your tree and increase the chance of fire.
- Turn lights off when leaving your home and before going to bed.

CANDLES

- Keep candles at least 12 inches away from walls, curtains, trees, and decorations. Extinguish all candles when you leave the room or go to sleep.
- Never leave a child or pet alone with a burning candle in the room.
- Make sure candles are in a stable, non-combustible holder.

FIREPLACES

- Have your chimney inspected annually and cleaned and repaired as needed.
- Always use a fireplace screen to prevent sparks from flying into the room.
- Allow ashes to cool completely before disposal.
- Store removed ashes in tightly covered metal containers, never in boxes or bags.

PORTABLE SPACE HEATERS

- Keep portable space heaters at least three feet away from walls, curtains, bedding or other materials that may burn.
- Turn off portable space heaters when you leave the room. Never leave them on when you go to bed.
- Plug cords only into outlets with sufficient capacity and never into an extension cord.

The South Salt Lake Fire Department wishes you and your family a wonderful Holiday Season and a Happy New Year.

FREE BIKES 4 KIDZ

fb4kutah.org | 2250 South Main Street

Free Bikes 4 Kidz is a non-profit organization helping all kids ride into a happier, healthier childhood by providing bikes to those most in need.

How it works - Every year they host a Collection Event(s) where the public donates their used bikes. Bikes are taken to a warehouse where volunteers clean, refurbish, and make repairs. Meanwhile, they partner with community organizations and other non-profits to identify qualified recipients. In early December, these families attend the Distribution Event where the kids get to pick out a bike and helmet all their own.

Interested in getting involved? Visit our website for volunteer opportunities (No mechanical experience necessary!) or to help out financially.

Community Happenings

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Help South Salt Lake bridge the digital divide by becoming a digital navigator! As a digital navigator, you'll meet one-on-one with community members to help address their digital needs from acquiring a low-cost computer to signing up for internet service to learning fundamental tech skills.

Volunteers do not need to be particularly proficient at computer skills. Rather, we are looking for outgoing volunteers who enjoy helping others and are accepting of people from all backgrounds. For more information or to sign up, connect with Lucas Horns at lhorns@sslc.gov.

Resident and local Senior Advocate, James Brown sits down with SSL Chamber of Commerce President, Gary Birdsall as they discuss the future potential of The Co-Op as a workspace for interviews, meetings and nonprofit organizations.

All-Ages FitLot Comes to Bickley Park

In attendance at the FitLot dedication were Ida and Laurie Bickley, who volunteered for years at the former Columbus Library, and are for whom Bickley Park is named.

It is no surprise that the 'City on the Move' is now home to Utah's first FitLot. The new outdoor exercise station adds to the recently opened Bickley Park at 2508 S. 500 East. The outdoor fitness station was generously donated by AARP and designed by FitLot. The grant from AARP also includes three years of programming which will ensure free fitness instruction classes at the FitLot.

"Our City is always finding new ways to invest in people. Mental and physical health are a big challenge for many community members, and the pandemic made this especially acute. We knew one solution would be to encourage more outdoor fitness, and to our great pleasure, AARP and FitLot made this happen at just the right time. I couldn't be more thrilled to open the first FitLot in Utah and create an active space to foster healthy aging," said Mayor Cherie Wood.

"This outdoor amenity is the perfect addition to our Bickley Park. We were so excited to design it as an all ages, all abilities playground and at last have a park next to our community center," said Sharen Hauri, South Salt Lake Director of Neighborhoods.

"We look forward to energizing our residents here - no matter their age or fitness level," said Aaron Wiet, Director of the SSL Recreation, "One of our main purposes is to enhance the quality of life for all residents and keep our community strong, and the new FitLot does exactly that."
